EDITORIAL NOTES.

Thirty-six mines have closed down in Idaho because of the decline in the price of silver. Still office seekers who expect to live at the public expense advocate the election of Wall street candidates. Such men must think the dear people are idiots.

Solomon was wise in his day and generation. He clung to his silver and parted with his gold. The sheen of his temple was dazzling. Its exterior was of silver. Within it was adorned with gold and silver. In all ages silver has stood side by side with gold and at times was superior to and more valuable than gold. It remained for a combination of bankers and bondholders of Europe and a few political hirelings of this country to degrade it, and destroy its usefulness and influence in the commercial world.—Silver State.

SILVER TICKET ENDORSED

At the Winnemucca Convention.

A CHANCE THAT THE PRESIDENT'S WIFE MAY RECOVER

Several Deaths from Diphtheria in Berkley—Crushed to Death.

Special to the APPEAL

From Winnemucca.

Winnemucca, Sept 15—The Convention held here today was large and harmonious. The Presidential Electors, Wren, Powning and Bonnifield were pledged to Weaver and Field. Stewart, Newlands, Belknap, Fish and Mack endorsed the platform denouncing Cleveland and Harrison bolters and the enemies of silver in Nevada, which was received with cheers. The Ormsby delegation will return Friday morning by special train.

A California Pioneer Killed.

Sonora, Cal., Sept. 15—J. T. Holland, a pioneer of this county, and who has been engaged for several months in hauling sulphurets from the Dead-horse mine to the reduction works at Angels, was killed today. In some manner unknown he fell from his horse while coming down a hill near Sonora and the heavily loaded wagon passed over his body, crushing it. He was candidate for Sheriff of this county on the Prohibition ticket.

Diphtheria in Berkley.

Berkley, Cal. Sept 15—Diphtheria is raging in the Italian settlement near Temescal. There were several deaths today. Fears of epidemic.

Crushed to Death.

Haywards, Sept. 15—Antoine Cordoza, was crushed to death by a falling tree, near here today.

Mere Cholera.

New York, Sept. 15—Two more cases of cholera were reported in this city today. One of these, Mary Connelly, aged 19, was removed to the floating hospital this afternoon.

Mrs. Harrison Resting Easy.

Leon Lake, N. Y., Sept 15—Mrs. Harrison is resting easy tonight, and there is a bare possibility of saving her life.

County Clerk and Treasurer.

L. H. Bell announces himself for the above office, and if elected would do the work well. He is a capable, honest gentleman, and has lived in Carson many years. As County Treasurer his books were always in perfect order, and he is popular among the young men, being one himself.

Mrs. Harrison is better.
